Interested in Fire and Emergency Response?

Then join the Exploring Program at Gerritsen Beach Fire Department! This hands-on program focuses on training in first aid, emergency response, and community service. If you are interested in working as a fire fighter, EMT, or paramedic, this is the perfect place to start. You will be mentored by fire fighters and taught the skills necessary in the field. Grow through the ranks, and you will earn free EMT training and the chance to attend the NY Fire Academy in Nassau County. Come and join the fun!
