Interested in gaining valuable skills to prepare yourself for college and the world of business?

If so, the Young Adult Leadership Program of American Management Association (AMA) powered by Operation Enterprise® invites you to take the first step to success!

This job and college readiness program will include workshops on resume writing, interview skills, networking skills, business etiquette, and projecting a positive professional image. Each student will have an opportunity to look over their resumes with an AMA Manager and to partake in a mock interview. This program is beneficial for any student interested in continuing to college or looking to begin a career after high school.
